Ladies' and

Misses' Suits At and Below Cost.

We've had a remarkably busy season in suits, but, like many merchants, we've had our calculations upset by the rainy spell of last month—hence more suits on hand than this time of the season warrants. We must reduce our stock—so we've decided to make deep price cuts on every Ladies' and Misses' Suit in our stock—in many instances garments will be offered below actual cost; therefore we must wake a charge for any alterations must make a charge for any alterations—the charges will be very small, as the cost of only actual labor will be charged. Take the elevator to second floor bright and early this morning. A first choice is worth having.

All Bills Audited and Paid by the Inaugural Committee.

The Final Meeting Held Last Night-The Balance of $2,995 Turned Over to the Citizens' Relief Association -A Proposal to Change the Date.

The final meeting of the Inaugural Comnittee was held last night at the Arlingin Hotel, when the only matter under sideration was the disposition of the rplus of the Inaugural funds. After deucting an appropriation to pay an inlebtedness, considered an obligation upor the citizens of the District of Columbia and an appropriation to equal half of the sum of the compensation regularly paid o the secretary, the surplus was voted to the Citizens' Relief Association, in acordance with the procedent established by former Inaugural Committees. Mr. Edson stated that the delay in calling the final meeting was due to the settlement of pending bills and the arrangement with the department. He asked for the approval of the committee for the appropriation of $1,500 for the Convention of Charities and Corrections. He stated that the sum had been appropriated on the signature of forty-five members of the sommittee and that the amount had been paid over. He further stated that the convention had voluntarily offered to return the committee the sum of $450 unlisbursed. The committee approved the

The claim of Frank Carver for $1,700 was then presented by Mr. Edson. He stated that the committee had approved a compromise bill of $350 offered by Mr.

Mr. Edson stated that with the payment of the Carver claim and the other approprintion mentioned, there still remained a balance of $2,545 surplus over all expenses. This did not include the $450 agreed to be returned by the Convention of Charities and Corrections, raising the

At the request of Mr. Larner, Commisoner Macfarland explained the applicaon of the fund for charitable purposes. Mr. Macfarland urged that an exception be made of the application of the fund to the Citizens' Relief Association fund in avor of the Union Veterans' Union's ouvention held here last fall.

Mr. Macfarland urged that the citizens hould guarantee a fund to aid in the sayment of the expenses of visiting conentions. He considered it proper and ecessary that the citizens of the District numiniting condition imposed by the lack of money to pay the expenses of visiting organizations, invited by the Board of Trade and the District Commissioners, Mr. Larner modified his motion so as to provide the payment of a sum not to exceed $400 to cover the deficiency in the expenses of the Union Veterans' Union. Mr. Edson Suggested that neither the Board of Trade nor the Commissioners of the District obligated themselves to pay the expenses of organizations invited to the expenses of organizations invited to hold conventions in Washington, He, however, did not oppose the present sugin the Coming Edition. The annual report of the Civil Service Commission for the fiscal year ended June 20, 1900, will be ready for the printer within the next few weeks. It promises to be the most interesting report yet issued by the Commission.

The report will contain the results of everal investigations made by the Com-nission of alleged violations of the Civil ervice law, the most important one of chich is the case of Collector Sapp, of the Jouisville, Ky., Internal revenue district. The Commission, it appears, obtained nough evidence to warrant it in recommending Sapp's removal. The investiga-tion was made nearly two years ago, but Collector Sapp has not been removed yet.

REVENUES MUCH GREATER.

April Report Shows an Increase of Nearly Four Million.

Internal revenue receipts for the month of April were $26,941,579, which is an increase of $3,689,926 over April a year ago The receipts from the several sources were: Spirits, $9,464,782; increase, $948,289; obneco, 35,407,198; increase, 2008,353; fermented liquors, $5,908,000; Increase, $216 mented liquors, 25,988,900; Increase, 2216, 156; oleomargarine, $180,980; increase, $19,458; special taxes, not elsewhere enumerated, £7,960; miscellaneous, $5,830,745; increase, $1,580,638.

The receipts for the ten months of the fiscal year to May I were $254,672,488, and increase over the receipts for the similar period last year of $10,885,278.

FOUR NEWWOMEN LAWYERS

The Graduation Exercises of Washington College of Law Held.

Senator Mason, Whose Daughter Buth Was one of the Fair Pleaders to Receive a Diploma, Delivers an Address-Two Other Speakers.

The Washington College of Law last light, at Luther Memorial Church, gave liplomas to eight graduates, seven of shom were women. The interest that the aw school for women has aroused in Washington and the many friends that it month in the Philippines, leaving there has, though only in the third year of its xistence, was evidenced by the large audience, nearly filling the entire body of the church and the galleries. On the platform, standing as sponsor, for the institution, were Judge Shepard

f the Court of Appeals; Judge Stantor Peelle, of the Court of Claims; Judge C. Cole, H. Clay Evans, Commissione. f Pensions; William T. Harris, Commis sioner of Education; William B. King Senator William E. Mason of Hlinois, the Rev. M. Ross Fishburn, the Rev. John Van Schaick, jr; Mrs. Ellen S. Mussey, can of the college; Judge E. C. Foster, Prof. Emma M. Gillett, Prof. W. J. A. Page. On either side smaller platforms had been erected person to Major John M. Banist r. Sur- on which was seated the undergraduates. The graduates were flowing gowns and appointed to meet at the U. S. Military tasseled caps. The color of the college is Academy, West Point, New York, at such | nile green, and the capes of the gowin time as may be required by the hourd for were lined with silk of that shade, making a most beautiful effect. The platform was panked with palms and cut flowers, and n the centre of the gallery above was the ollege stag in green with W. C. L. in purple letters, and a mace terminating the staff. Haley's band furnished music dur ing the intervals between the speeches. After an invocation by the Rev. M. Ross Fishburn, D. D., pastor of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, E. C. Foster Introduced Scantor Mason as the presiding officer. Mr. Foster traced the brief history of the college, and told how is had had its rise in the effort made by a brilliant woman to get a law education Kaocking at the door of law schools, she found herself rejected, and finally was obliged to seek her training in the office of Ellen Spencer Mussey, who took her as a pupil. This pupil brought others, and gradually the scheme of a college was volved, which had now graduated eleven students, and was just about to graduate eight more. He prophesied a great future for the women's institution. Senator Mason's remarks, in his usually suave and humorous vein, took the form of advice to the graduating class. He urged them to make a special point of seping all engagements, and to take are they did not form any they were not sure they could keep. "Make all your papers the best you can, and then fire them ato court," he said. "If they are wrong the opposing lawyers will demur, and tricky or take an unfair advantage. It loes not pay. Be absolutely fearless in the defence of your client, and don't think that money is the whole thing."

William T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, spoke on "Women in the Professions," and gave statistics to show that the number of women taking the law courses in colleges had inversible 100 per cent since 1878. Ha men taking the law courses in colleges had increated 800 per cent since 1876. He thought the great benefit that women got from the law training came from their absorption through contiact of the conservative deliberate, and calm spirit of the Roman law, which made them more litted to be good and helpful citizens. Edwin C. Dutton, the only man in the graduating class, presented to the college, in a neat speech, the college flag.

The next weaker was William B. King.

The next speaker was William B. King, the took up the question of "A Lawyer's conscience," and argued the question of Conscience," and argued the question of professional etiquette involved in taking up a case known to be wrong. He came to the conclusion that especially in criminal cases, as the lawyer was the only man between the accused and the gallows, the lawyer should take anything offered him and defend the case, citing many notable precedents in support of his position. As regards civil cases, he did not think that a man was justified his position. #### "THE CIRCUS GIRL."

An Excellent Performance of the Musical Piece at the Columbia, The Duff Musical Comedy Company entered upon its last presentation at the Columbia Theatre last night when The Circus Girl" was given before an audience that was not at all commensurate with the merits of the performance, which was the best the organization has offered during its local engagement. The company was excellently cast, especially Grace Belnont, who as La Favorita, the circus girl, evidenced an ability as an actress and vocalist that was surprisingly good. The performance also served to introfuce Hans Roberts, a local player, whose appearances in this city heretofore have principally been confined to straight comedy. In "The Circus Girl" Mr. Roberts sterprets the role of the American bartender, Biggs, and extracts a great deal of humor from the lines. COMING TO THE THEATRES. Chase's-Polite Vaudeville. Chase's Theatre, in its artistic and re-important and popular than ever, is typi-fying today the acme of the spring imusement seeker's idea of entertainnent, and in consequence is attracting au diences that test the capacity of the touse. The success scored this week by the Keith Art Studies, and the popular expressions they have called forth genrally, have resulted in their being retained by Mr. Chase as a leading feature of next week's offering. Commencing with the matinee next Monday, an entirely new series will be inaugurated. The new living reproductions of famous paintings and bas reliefs will receive the same artistic treatment and setting as those on exhibition this week. The subjects will be popular in character and are exected to attract the same undivided atpected to attract the same undivided attention as the present libustrations of what latter-day vaudeville management is doing for the amusement of the people.

In addition to the new series of art studies the bill will contain many features that are among the best in vaudeville. Among these will be George W.
Leelie, Louise Willis and company in the prize play, "Chums;" James Richmond Glenroy, "The man with the green gloves;" the Nondescripts, negro comedy artists; Matt and Carry Woodward, comedy pantomime duettists; the novelty

The Lafayette-"Alabama."

'Alabama," the well-known comedy rama by Augustus Thomas, author o Arizona" and "In Mizzoura," will be reived next week by the Lafayette Square tock Company. The play has been see: umerous times in the past dozen years ut has never failed to draw large auiences. It is considered one of Mr Thomas' best efforts, and though his later offerings have attained great success, fev lave quite reached the standard of "Ala-The play is a picture of the South after

The Georgetown Orchestra.

The concert to be given by the Georgeown Orchestra of seventy musicians at the National Theatre Saturday evening promises to be one of the most interestng musical events of the season,

This organization is the oldest of its kind in continued existence in the District. Its memberships this season is larger and of better quality than at any previous time, and Prof. Joseph Kaspar, the conductor, expects to show better resuits than ever. The programme is an attractive one and will test the ability of the archestra, but there is no fear that it will not be found equal to the demands. The soloists are well-known musicians and will be heard with pleasure. Seat sale in progress at Sanders & Stayman's.

Glen Echo to Open Sunday.

Manager Thomas is busily engaged in outting on the finishing touches at Glen Echo in order that that popular place of summer amosement may be thrown open to the public next Sunday, at which time here will be a band concert on the lawn throughout the day and evening and the various new features will be presented Monday evening the theatre will be pened with a strong vaudeville bill composed of Ah Ling Foo and company, who are said to be the legitimate successors of Ching Ling Foo; the great Chinese ma-gician; Eldora and Norine, comedy equili-brists, Pauline Field, singing comedienne Fechting Brothers, in a hodge podge of music, the La Reine Trio in an acrobati turn, and many others. Prior to the open-ing of the bill in the theatre Hill and Os-trado, "Kings of the Air," will give a free exhibition on a wire strung from th upols of the main building to the dom-of the amphitheatre. The best of order i comised by the management and the ca service will be all that could be desired. Commencing Sunday morning, all the ears will be run through to Glen Echo

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL,

The marriage of Miss Edith Stacy Rogers to R. E. Bakenhus, civil engineer, U. S. N., was solemnized last night at o'clock at All Souls' Church, admission to the ceremony being by card. The bride, who entered the church with her brother Mr. Walter F. Rogers, wore an ideally pretty gown of white peau de soi, both skirt and bodice trimmed with ripples of liberty gauze. A tulle veil fell in graceful folds to the edge of her train and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Dorinda E. Rogers was her sister's only attendant. With her gown of white or gandie she carried a cluster of sweet peas. Mr. Arthur Rinder, of Chicago, acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. William S. Rogers, of Trenton, N. J. the bride's cousin; Mr. Hibbert S. Holly, of Philadelphia; Mr. Thomas Bailey, of Boston, and Mr. Henry H. Allen, of this city. Palms hedged the sides of the aisle leading to the chancel where the Rev. W. G. Pierce awaited the arrival of the bridal train. The nuptial marches were played by Prof. Waters. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home on Rhode Island Avear the bride's nome on knode Island Avenue for the wedding party and out of town guests, among the latter being Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Holby, of Germantown, Pa., and Miss Potts, of Philadelphia.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bakenhus left for a wedding trip, the latter being Mr. ter wearing a going-away gown of blue cloth over a drop skirt of blue silk, a tan straw trimmed with blue satin ribbon.
